DEDICATED

TO

"MR. JIMMY"

A generous spirit, an understanding heart, a manly man, in appreciation of his deep interest in and loyal devotion to a greater Copiah-Lincoln, his personal charm and character, we, the Sophomore Class of 1937, respectfully dedicate this sixth volume of The Co-Lin Trillium.

FOREWORD

Through the medium of this volume of The Co-Lin Trillium we express to our fellow Alumni a joyous greeting and to our fellow students a fond farewell. We have attempted in its pages to depict faithfully and vividly student life at Copiah-Lincoln in the year of 1937.

We hope that we have invested the buildings you have roamed through with so much life that they will never be just brick and mortar to you, but will be instead a symbol of the culture and the refinement you have learned within their walls. We cherish the idea that we have so pictured your friends whom you have made here that they will, when you open this book, smile, and remind you that these years spent in pursuit of an education have been happy. We dream that in the years to come these pages will be the medium of showing you how you looked and what you did in your youth. We treasure the many happy hours we have spent in searching for ideas which would recreate the realities and illusions of your by-gone school days because we fancy when your hair has turned to silver and your youth is only a memory that this volume will be very precious to you.

Hail Copiah-Lincoln! Sons and Daughters true,
Pledge thee our love, We'll sing thy praise anew.
Faithfully and Loyally we'll ever honor thee.
We'll push thy colors on to Victory!

THE GATEWAY

Greetings From Our President

To those Co-Lin students and friends who may scan these pages for some memory of Copiah-Lincoln of 1937, we write this message of greeting.

Those of yesteryear will find new faces and new scenes. These must come and go with progress. Those of a decade or a generation hence will view scenes and faces once dear, but that are no more. They, too, will have moved on with progress. Behind the scenes of these pages though the Spirit of Copiah-Lincoln ever prevails.

Copiah-Lincoln, "The School with a Future," must live in the hearts of the young men and women as they serve humanity in their day and generation.

Cordially yours,

J. M. Ewing

THE BOOKS

The majestic Gothic spires, preceding the Academic division, represent the beauty of learning; the medieval guilds, heading the Organizations division, depict activity; the courtly scene between Sir Walter Raleigh and Queen Elizabeth, introducing the Feature division, portrays the love of the spectacular and the beautiful common to all men; Atalanta's race, preceding the Athletic division, proclaims the classic perfection and charm of physical poise; and the globe of the world, opening the Advertising division, represents world-wide unity for commercial prosperity.

HOMECOMING CELEBRATION NOVEMBER 1936

Co-Lin Marches On

Eight years have passed by since the students of Copiah-Lincoln published their last volume of The Co-Lin. Since then much water has gone under the bridge. Many changes have been wrought in our college. We have ridden triumphantly out of the depression, preserved our traditions, and achieved some of our ambitions. We have grown steadily stronger in the things that make a college great. Academic achievements, dreamed of in 1929 have become ours; athletic honors, cleanly won on fair fields of competition have brought us fame; character education has continued to be a noble influence in our class-rooms.

Now, to celebrate the glories of our greater college and to better preserve its hallowed traditions, we are publishing, after a lapse of eight years another annual, which we christen The Co-Lin Trillium in honor of our beloved Alma Mater and a wild spring flower, native to the fields and woods of Copiah and Lincoln Counties.

AUTUMNAL INSPIRATION

Come with me, all my classmates,
On this Indian Summer day;
The marigolds gladden the forest,
The butterflies wend their way.

To the east they go ever forward,
As though drawn by a beautiful star;
They never pause, but press onward
Seeking wisdom and rest from afar.

So let us ever press onward,
In service to man and God:
There's a pot of gold at the rainbow's end,
If we follow the path the sages trod.

FOOTBALL

During the nine years that Co-Lin has been a Junior College, she has been especially noted for her splendid football teams. Under the superb coaching of "Hook" Stone, the Wolves have won the championship six straight years and have been strong contenders for the title the other three years.

The first game of the 1936-37 season resulted in a heart breaking defeat for the Co-Lin Wolves at the hands of the Millsaps Reserves, a non-conference team. With the closing seconds of play near at hand, Co-Lin attempted a field goal which failed when the ball hit the cross-bar and bounded back instead of over. This left the Wolves with a 15—14 defeat. The sting of this defeat was soon forgotten when the boys started their conference schedule and defeated Scooba in a 13—6 victory. The game was more decisively Co-Lin's than the score indicated.

In the next game the Wolves probably exhibited the best playing of the year when they defeated Decatur 10—0 in a bitterly fought game on the Hazlehurst field. Co-Lin thrilled the grandstands by scoring all her points in the closing minutes of play.

Ellisville next fell victim to the vicious attack of the Wolves. After playing three closely contested quarters, Co-Lin ran wild to score twenty points in the last quarter. Ellisville was defeated by a score of 26—6.

At this stage of the season the team was growing stronger and more confident. While the taste of the Ellisville victory was still fresh, the boys journeyed to Poplarville to play their first night game. It was an interesting game filled with numerous tough breaks. The final score a 7—7 tie chastened the wild, fighting spirit of the Co-Lin squad.

The Wolves then went to Monroe, Louisiana, where they eked out another 7—7 tie in a non-conference game with the strong L. S. U. Junior College.

After these two tie games the Wolf Pack fought valiantly for a victory at Moorhead and won it by a score of 18—0, scoring two touchdowns, an extra point, one field goal, and a safety.

Nothing could have served better as an appetizer for a great victory on Home Coming Day than the decisive Moorhead victory. But Goodman, the strongest rival Co-Lin has in football, came primed for victory, too. The clash was terrific and thrilling. Co-Lin came out on the short end of a 26—6 score, but the game was much harder fought than the score indicated. Later, for playing an ineligible man, Goodman was forced to relinquish her laurels won that bright November day before hundreds of loyal Co-Lin Alumni.

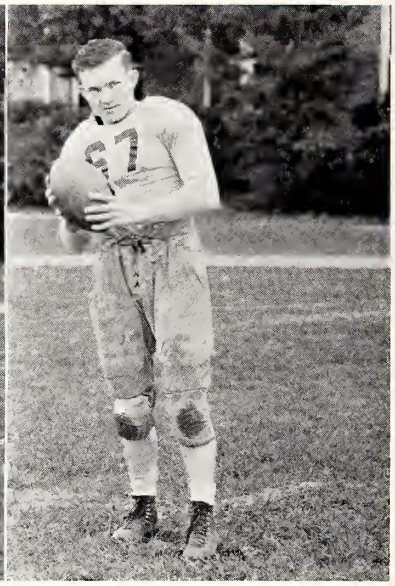
The Wolves went the next week to McComb, where a strong Summit team took them by surprise and tied them, 6—6.

The day before Thanksgiving the fighting blue and grey Wolves brought to a close a hard fought season by losing to a fast and alert Raymond team, which had been "pointing" to beat them all the year. The final score was 12—6.

A season, not brilliant but satisfactory, had closed. The team, though tied and defeated several times, probably represented the best coaching ever done at Copiah-Lincoln, considering the inexperience of most of the players and the heaviness of the schedule.

CAPTAIN F. J. DICKEY
Tackle

MANAGER DAVID CARAWAY



CO-CAPTAIN WILLIAM SMITH
Halfback

DICKEY

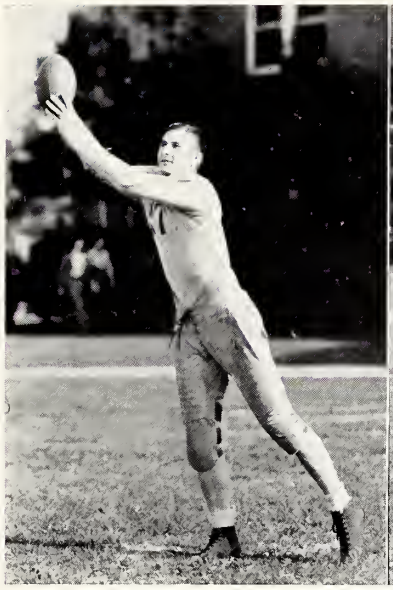
"Cap," a sophomore, proved himself to be a sterling leader, both on and off the field of play. He is a charging tackle who rates among the best.

CARAWAY

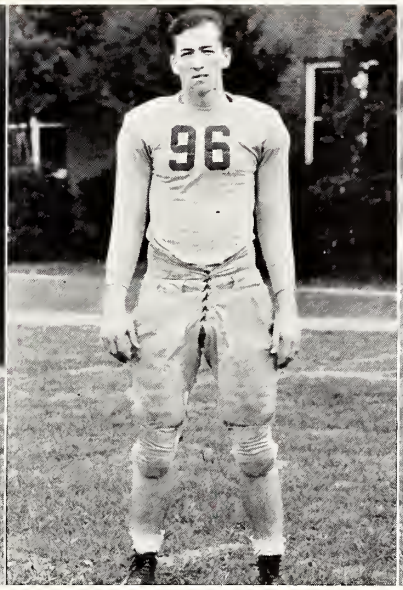
"Slush" stepped right into the managerial duties without any experience and handled the job in a very commendable fashion. The whole squad liked him.

SMITH

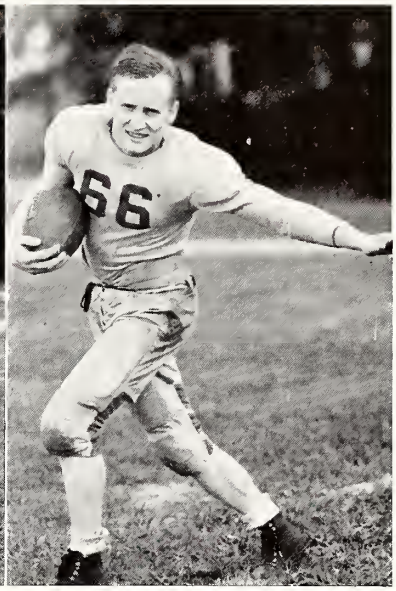
"B," a scrappy, little package of dynamite, was one of the best offensive men in the conference. His dependability on both defense and offense will be missed next year, as he is a sophomore.



GRANVILLE HARRISON
End



FRED VARNER
End



BAXTER SUMMERS
Halfback

HARRISON

"Buttermilk" starred in every game both on offense and defense. He is a great pass receiver and a powerful tackle. As he has two more years, great things are expected of him.

VARNER

Fred is a good defensive player and is especially adapted to snagging passes. He will be missed very much next year.

SUMMERS

Baxter, small but tough, is a sophomore, who played consistently throughout the season. He is a sure, hard-tackler and a good open-field runner.

BLACKWELL

"Black" is a power in the line and good at running interference. He played more than any other man on the squad, lacking only a very few minutes of playing every minute of every game. He is a freshman.

DABBS

"Sporty" centered his attention around blocking, tackling, and pass defense. His being shifted from a running position to a blocking back was a good move. He is a sophomore.

HOGAN

The work of "Ed" at tackle is something for which he might justly be proud. We are looking forward to his hard tackling and blocking again next year.

Guard

CHARLES WARD
Halfback

RAY MOFFETT
Fullback

BRITT

Oscar, a high school junior, had the determination and the ability to become the youngest man to "make" the varsity eleven in Co-Lin's College history.

WARD

The punting of "Gooly," a freshman, was the main factor in pulling the Wolves out of many tough spots. He is the team's triple-threat man.

MOFFETT

"One-Eye" is one of the most aggressive backs seen here in years. He will be with us next year with his vicious tackling and line plunging.

SMITH

Vence, a brainy flankman finishing this year, was ever alert and always in the thick of the fight. Hard tackling was his main asset.

MACKINNEY

"Tubby," a high school senior, was shifted from backfield to center and came through in grand style. A tower on defense, he is one of the scrappiest centers who ever snapped the oval.

HAY

The shifting of "Jeep," a high school senior, from end to tackle proved a very wise move. Opposing teams usually found it very difficult to gain over such a big boy.

DEWITT SHIVERS

ADCOCK

"Pee Pee" specialized in blocking and place kicking. So good a freshman player should be a corker as a sophomore. His field goals and extra points many times saved the day, or rather the game.

CALHOUN

"Cowboy" proved to be a sterling performer both at guard and fullback. His hard tackling and picking at the line will be missed next year.

SHIVERS

"Hock," a freshman, came through in a big way. His specialty was in dealing big tackles misery with his elbows, and in "nailing" backs behind the line of scrimmage.

SMITH

Jay, a junior playing his first year for Co-Lin, turned in a good performance. He received passes well and is especially powerful on defense. Great things can be expected of him next year.

RUSSELL

"Pela" was valuable at guard and tackle. He was almost immovable on defense and blocked well on offense. He finishes this year.

GUIDROZ

"Frenchy," a very speedy little senior, was a constant threat at making long gains on off-tackle and end runs.

BASKETBALL

THE WOLVERINES

After losing the first four games of the season, the powerful Wolverines came to life and won thirteen games, ending the season with an enviable record. Coach Mattie Wallace trained her girls so well that they came through the tournament to the semi-finals. Then in the hottest game of the season they lost to Goodman by a narrow score of 55 to 50. Not in many years have such good players hit the basketball court at Co-Lin as Harris, Blackwell, Pace, Ellzey, Butler, McCann, Smith, Lewis, Barrow, Gates, Martin, and the Busch twins.

Co-Lin, with practically her whole team returning, is out for the Junior College championship next year.

THE WOLVES

The Wolf basketeers, coached by "Hook" Stone, were developed into one of the strongest teams in the Junior College Conference. Excluding the tournament games, which were played at Goodman, the team chalked up eleven winning scores to their credit. They won at least one victory over every team they played, including the season's champion team, Moorhead.

Ward, Harrison, Egger, Francis, Smith, Blackwell, Tarbutton, Stevens, Rice, and Pounder were a brilliant aggregation of players, even if they did lack consistency at times. The team fought its way through a hard season only to lose in the semi-final games in the tournament to the hard fighting Goodman team.

Next year, the Co-Lin Wolves will give some college in the Conference a hard run for the championship, for only three of the 1937 squad will not be back on the campus.

BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Bottom Row: Coach Stone, Pounder, Stevens, Donahoe, Francis, Price, Blackwell, and Moore.

Middle Row: Egger, Smith, Gardner, Ward, and Harrison.

Top Row: Britt, Guidroz, Jones, Rogers, and Ratcliff.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Bottom Row: Pace, Smith, Butler, Gates, Ellzey, and Harris.

Middle Row: Blackwell, Barrow, Busch twins, McCann, and Lewis.

Top Row: Keen, Elam, Martin, May, Husband, Snyder, and Coach Wallace.

THE HIGH SCHOOL BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Coach Troy Funchess developed one of the most outstanding high school teams in the State this year, winning a total of twelve games and losing only four. A three cornered battle was waged among the Co-Lin Baby Wolves, Fair Oak Springs, and Johnston Station for the championship of the Southwestern region, with the latter barely managing to win.

Newell, Dickerson, Owens, Grandberry, King, Smith, West, Johnson, Thurman, and Rich were the mainstays in the brilliant team.

BASEBALL

PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

The belief by educational authorities that a sound mind must have a sound body to live in has led to the establishment of the Physical Education Department in our College. Correct posture, good health habits, natural dancing, simple drilling exercises, and outdoor sports are part of the program directed by Miss Caulfield and Mr. Pearce, instructors in physical education for girls and boys at Co-Lin.

Growth

● Development in the Southwest continues to spread like the branching of a great oak. Unlimited resources give this section a priceless advantage over other regions, greatly stimulating industrial and commercial growth.

● Among these resources is Natural Gas—a fuel which makes possible greater economy and efficiency in home, factory and plant . . . a fuel that is dependable and cheap.

● In the future, as well as in the past, Mississippi can be assured of an adequate supply of Natural Gas at all times, for all purposes.
